

Advanced Test Facility and Simulation Tool Development

- Spray combustion chamber assembly completed (top right)
- Ancillary systems and infrastructure in preparation (view of lab facility outline bottom right)
- Extension of nitric oxide formation model to include reduction reactions involving soot and hydrocarbons with promising first results
- Extensive validation study completed
- Combustion system optimization studies initiated

